Fire-rated storage beyond filing for ultimate flexibility and protection.

Robinson Industries in Coleman, Michigan, experienced a devastating fire. The disaster leveled their manufacturing facility and corporate offices. The day of the fire was also payday for their employees, and they stored their employees' paychecks and direct deposit slips in a FireKing fire-rated file. After firefighters battled the blaze for more than six hours, they were able to locate and recover the documents inside the file and they were unharmed.

No one thinks fire will happen to them - be ready for anything with FireKing®
